Florida's Supervisors of Elections:

RE: Judicial Campaign Conduct Forums

The Supreme Court of Florida and The Florida Bar Board of Governors, in concert with the state's trial court chief judges and the Judicial Ethics Advisory Committee, are presenting judicial campaign conduct forums in advance of next year's elections. As in years past, all judicial candidates facing opposition will be expected to participate in one of several forums scheduled the week following the close of qualifying. My purpose in writing is to thank you for your previous willingness to distribute information regarding forums to judicial candidates and to request your assistance again in advance of the 2022 elections.

Specifically, we would appreciate your permitting elections staff to copy and distribute a letter and schedule to all persons pre-filing and later qualifying for election or re-election as judges. Comprising only three pages, these materials include instructions for accessing additional resources online. For those persons already submitting papers declaring their candidacy for judicial office, we hope staff might simply include these materials in a next regular mailing.

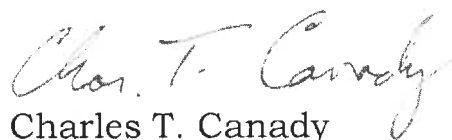

If this is agreeable, the materials will be provided to you upon our finalizing the schedule for all forums. Please contact Melissa
