2020 General – Unofficial Results Reported

Hillsborough, FL – Supervisor of Elections Craig Latimer posted unofficial results for the 2020 General Election at VoteHillsborough.org this evening. These results include Vote By Mail, Early Voting and all Election Day precincts. They do not include provisional ballots, ballots with signature issues that may be cured, or overseas ballots postmarked by Election Day (November 3) which may be received until ten days after the election.

In accordance with Florida Statute, the unofficial results will be certified by November 7, after provisional ballots have been canvassed.

The certification of Official Results is expected November 13. Results can be found at VoteHillsborough.org.
