2022 Primary – Unofficial Results Reported

Hillsborough, FL – Supervisor of Elections Craig Latimer posted unofficial results for the 2022 Primary Election at VoteHillsborough.gov this evening. These results include Vote By Mail, Early Voting and all Election Day precincts. They do not include provisional ballots or ballots with signature issues that may be cured. Those results will be added at the Canvassing Board meeting scheduled for August 25 at 5 p.m. and the unofficial results will be certified in accordance with F.S.102.141.

At that meeting, the Canvassing Board will order a machine recount if any race or issue would be defeated by .5% or less of the total votes cast for that race or issue. If any recounts are ordered, they will begin August 26.

After the machine recount, a manual recount must be ordered if the second set of unofficial results indicates that a candidate or issue was defeated by .25% or less of the votes cast.

Official Results will be certified no later than August 30, in accordance with F.S. 102.112. Results can be found on the 2022 Primary Election page at VoteHillsborough.gov.
