Hillsborough County General Election Update – Last Weekend of Early Voting

Hillsborough County, FL – Hillsborough County Supervisor of Elections Craig Latimer is reminding voters they can vote this weekend, and encouraging voters to cast their ballot as soon as possible.

Hillsborough County's in-person Early Voting continues daily through tomorrow, November 6, with 26 sites open 7 a.m. – 7 p.m. Voters can vote at any Early Voting site during this period, and should visit the Early Voting page at VoteHillsborough.gov to find a convenient location and check the wait time.

Vote By Mail ballots must be in the Supervisor of Elections Office by 7 p.m. on Election Day to be counted, so voters should now drop their ballots off instead of mailing them. Secure Ballot Intake Stations can be found at any of the Early Voting sites this weekend, including Hillsborough County's four elections offices from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m.

On Monday and Tuesday, Vote By Mail ballots must be dropped off at one of the Hillsborough County Supervisor of Elections offices. Vote By Mail ballots cannot be turned in at polling places on Election Day.

To find unofficial voter turnout for today and throughout Early Voting, visit VoteHillsborough.gov and look for the 2022 General Election page. Turnout by method, party, precinct, location, and date is updated frequently throughout the day.
