New Video Series from Hillsborough County Supervisor of Elections

Tune In on Tuesdays to Learn More About Voting and Elections

Hillsborough County, FL – Voters have questions. What happens to my ballot after I mail it in? Why do you use machines to tabulate votes? Will my ballot still count if I don't vote in all the races?

That's why, in an ongoing effort to serve as a trusted source of information, Hillsborough County Supervisor of Elections Craig Latimer is announcing a new voter education video series set to launch next Tuesday.

"We're encouraging our community to tune in every Tuesday to learn more about voting and elections," said Supervisor Latimer. "It's a long series of short videos, because we know people don't have a lot of time, but they do have a lot of interest in what we do and how we do it. Each week, we'll cover a new topic and post the video on social media and our website."
