City of Tampa Early Voting starts Monday

Tampa, FL – For voters who like to vote in person, the wait is just about over. Starting Monday, Tampa voters can cast their 2023 City of Tampa Municipal Election ballot at any of seven Early Voting sites throughout the city. The ballot includes races for Mayor and City Council seats and four proposed amendments to Tampa's City Charter.

During Early Voting, voters can go to any Early Voting site and their ballot will be printed for them at the voting location. This is different than Election Day voting, when voters can only vote in the polling place assigned to their precinct.
