City of Tampa Municipal Runoff Election - Early Voting starts Monday

Tampa, FL – Starting Monday, Tampa voters can cast their ballot for the 2023 City of Tampa Municipal Runoff Election at any of seven Early Voting sites throughout the city. All ballots will include races for citywide seats in City Council Districts 1, 2 and 3. Voters who live in City Council District 6 will also have that race on their ballot.

During Early Voting, voters can go to any Early Voting site and their ballot will be printed for them at the voting location. This is different than Election Day voting, when voters can only vote in the polling place assigned to their precinct.
